

What are the benefits for homeowners of living within an identified historic district in Waverly?

- Studies show that homes in National Register districts hold their values better than in other areas.
- Pride of ownership in a district leads to responsible maintenance.