

What will happen to the FEMA buyout properties after the buyout?

- The City of Waverly will own the property. The home must be removed which will leave green space in the community. The home may be moved, salvaged or demolished.