

Why is Waverly being “compensated” by FEMA for loss of historic resources?

- When federal funding is involved in a project and historic resources are lost (such as the home buyouts after the flood of 2008), the federal government is required to compensate the community for loss of historic resources resulting from FEMA’s actions. (This is federal law spelled out in Section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966.)