Old Business

Chairman Boorum and Mrs. Olson reported on the storage building and the feelings of the City of Waverly Council after the August 22, 2011 Study Session. The storage building had support of the City of Waverly Council and would like to see an agreement similar to the existing agreement as it pertains to the use of the land. Chief Pursell reported the estimated costs for construction of the storage building (not including the exterior fencing) is approximately $53,000. Mr. Kammeyer and Mrs. Olson requested water and sewer be investigated and have a quote for those items. Chief Pursell informed the board of a potential grant opportunity through the Black Hawk County Gaming Association that could help offset some expenses. Mrs. Olson moved to make grant application to the Black Hawk County Gaming Association, 2nd by Mr. Reuter. All present voted aye, motion carried. Mr. Ranard made a motion to request a formal approval of the storage building project from the Bremer County Board of Supervisors and the City of Waverly Council, 2nd by Mr. Kammeyer. All present voted aye, motion carried.

No discussion or action was taken on the copy machine.
