ADULT SUMMER CHALLENGE

2021 PROGRAM SCHEDULE

TUESDAYS AT 6:30 PM

JUNE 15: HISTORICAL WALKING TOUR

Learn about Waverly's unique history! Follow along on this guided walking tour to hear about the homes and landmarks that have impacted Waverly's past.

JUNE 22: MOVIE IN THE GARDEN

Bring your lawn chairs and blankets to the library's garden and enjoy the movie "Little Women" (2019). Note: This event will begin at dusk, around 9 PM. Registration is required.

JUNE 29: ART IN THE GARDEN

Create a mosaic flower pot to take home! You get to select and break dishes, then use them to design a beautiful mosaic design. Registration is required.

JULY 6: CAMPFIRE COOKING CLASS

You'll leave this demonstration excited to get cooking over the campfire. Samples and recipes will be provided to attendees.

JULY 13: COMMUNITY GARDEN TOUR

Ron Lenth from the ISU Extension Office will lead us through one of Waverly's Community Garden spaces and explain how the program works. Meet at the garden space at the corner of 5th Ave. and 2nd St. SW.

JULY 20: VIRTUAL TRIVIA NIGHT

Test your trivia knowledge and compete to win fabulous prizes right from the comfort of your own home! This trivia night will be run completely through Zoom. A link will be posted on the library's social media pages closer to the event date.

A FEW MORE DETAILS:

Adult Summer Challenge programs take place on Tuesday evenings beginning at 6:30 PM, with the exception of the Movie in the Garden Night, which begins at dusk (approximately 9 PM). All events are free. Registration is required for both the Movie in the Garden and Art in the Garden. To register for these events, visit waverlyia.com/library/summer and follow the appropriate link, email us at waverly@waverly.lib.ia.us, or call us at (319) 352-1223. Event registration opens May 27. All events for summer 2021 will be held outdoors to help keep participants safe. Please remember to keep your distance from others and consider wearing a mask if distance cannot be maintained.
