

Waverly Historic Preservation Commission Monday June 26, 2017

Members present: Deborah Ackerson, Kris Brunkhorst, Glenn Fenneman, Mary Meyer, Peter Newell

The Meeting was called to order by acting chair Peter Newell. The agenda was adopted as distributed. Minutes from the May 2017 meeting were approved.

Regular Business:

1. Our Commission is scheduled to give an update of our activity at the Study Session of the City Council on July 24 at 7:00 pm. Don Meyer will make the presentation. All Commission members who are able are encouraged to attend as well.
2. The Commission voted to approve the contract for Marlys Svendsen to complete the nomination for placing the Green Bridge on the National Historic Register. Moved by Fenneman, seconded by Ackerson. Approved.
3. Mary Meyer moved, seconded by Deborah Ackerson, the nomination of the Scott and Sherri Niles house for the Waverly Historic Preservation Award. The motion carried.
4. Don Meyer has been working on Q and A for the Historic District awards and they will be added to the Commission website.
5. The First Baptist church was nominated for the Waverly Historic Register. Mary Meyer moved, seconded by Deborah Ackerson, to approve the nomination and have an appropriate plaque presented on July 15. The motion passed.
6. Brian Sullivan has received the signs for the Sturdevant Southwest Historic District.
7. The Commission has received $100 from Advantage Administrators (R. D. Drenkow and Company) to assist in the July 15 launch of the Sturdevant Southwest Historic District.
8. Don Meyer will be working with the local newspaper and radio station to promote the July 15 celebration.
9. Ideas and suggestions for the Farmers Exchange building have been passed on to Tab Ray and Leisure Services.
10. Mary Meyer reported on the Preservation Iowa conference she attended at Fort Dodge.

The meeting adjourned at 6:20 pm, after which the envelopes for the invitations to the July 15 party were addressed and stuffed.
